

Dash For Cash at Cornwall Karting Club

Tuesday, July 15, 2008

It was another great night of Kart racing for the Cornwall Karting Club Being the Dash for cash event. It with the heat and rain in last few days made for the fastest night yet in the 2008 season.

But the excitement was in feature action this week with some great three wide racing in the corners of the 1/8 mile bank clay oval at CORNWALL MOTOR SPEEDWAY. And with some new comers from the Brockville Speedway Kart Track it was a tell tale sign that Kart racing on dirt is a fast up coming sport in the Seaway Valley with a full house of fans and karts.

In feature action this week it was the 4D of Dominic Point taking yet another feature win and it gave him another chance to do his now famous victory dace in the winners circle. Which is now almost a tradition for Dominic with the fans. In the Rookie 2 Class the 7b Brendon Robertson who gets the win.

In other feature action this week it was the 7 of Tristen Morel taking another feature win in the Rookie 1 class. The KC1 of Young Kacey Nevelle shows his talent as he made his way through a tough pack taking the lead and never looking back for a victory in Jr Sportsman 1 class.

And in Jr Sportsman 2 this week it was another two feature night as the 115jb of Jacob Blais takes the first feature and in the second it was the 4 of Jasmine David who gets the checkered flag but not without some close calls and fast thinking on her part to keep herself in the lead.

Stock class this week show just how fast the track was as it was some 3 wide racing in the corners but the 15X of Shane Pecore who takes home with him the

It was a first for the Karting clud to have to make 3 features in the Jr Restricted class with the number of Karts showing up and in the first feature it was the 10S of Shelby Ladoucer and the second was won by the 8G of Oliver Gough. And last but not least the 1 of Justin Lalancette takes an early lead and held it the entire race taking home yet another victory for 2008. There was eight Karts slit in to two four Kart features for the the Dash for Cash the first feature was won by the 9L of Larri Lee Skidders and the second feature was won by the 1 of Justin Lalancette both winner receiving $75.00 from Olsonfab Metal Fabrication.
