

Mother nature takes Karting night

Mother Nature strikes Cornwall Karting Club making the officials decide to cancel tuesday, June 9 evening of racing.

The Karting Club runs every Tuesday night with green flag dropping at 7:15. The Karting Club thrives on putting the fun back into racing making it a great family outing with admission only 4 dollar's.

Each week young drivers from all over the Seaway Valley and upper New York State take on the 1/8 mile banked clay oval located between turns 3 and 4 of the big track at Cornwall Motor Speedway.

Be sure not to miss this Sunday, June 14 on the big track its Toonie night with $2.00 admission with a regular racing program.

And this Tuesday, June 16 its Peters Motorsports night at Cornwall Karting Club with a full race program. Green Flag Drops at 7:15