

Cornwall Motor Speedway is forced to cancel its May 31st race program

Cornwall, Ont – Sunday, May 31, 2009 – Martin Bélanger – Bad weather conditions along with cool temperature forced Cornwall Motor Speedway to cancel tonight's program. The Squire Shop was supposed to present a full program along with meet your favourite driver with a photo and autograph session during the intermission but Mother Nature had other plans.

Next week at the speedway will be Bumper Sticker Night, have your Cornwall Motor Speedway sticker to have a chance to win prizes, presented by the Giant Tiger of Cornwall. A full program is on the schedule with action in the Modifieds, Pro-Stock, Semi-Pro and Mini-Stock.

After two weeks of activity, Kayle Robidoux leads the way in Modified with Kyle Dingwall in second and Tim O'Brien in third. In the Pro-Stock category, Joey Ladouceur is on top and followed by Dave Bissonnette and Rock Aubin. Gaetan Amesse is first in the Semi-Pro class; Steve Harrigan and Jeff Philipps are tied for second. The Mini-Stock leaders are in order Ronnie Tyo on top, Jean-Marc Larose and Eli Gilbert completing the top 3.

Catch all the action on next Sunday, June 7 with exciting racing in all 4 divisions, racing starts at 7pm sharp. General admission is only 9$. Be there!
