

Bad weather forces Cornwall to cancel his July 26th program

Cornwall, Ont – Sunday, July 26, 2009 – Martin Bélanger – The Cornwall Motor Speedway was supposed to present Ladies night along with a complete race program but Mother Nature had other plans has bad weather throughout the weekend forced speedway officials to cancel July 26th race program.

A big show next weekend as Cornwall will host the final race of the Lucas Oil Canadian DIRT Challenge. The best-modified drivers of Quebec, Ontario and Northern New-York will be in the pits to race for the $5,000 to win purse and try to qualify for the 100-lap finale, on opening night, 48 modifieds had signed in for this race. The point's race will end with a double points night for that series. Time trials will start at 6:30pm.

Along with the modifieds, the 3 other classes will also be in action during that great night of racing sponsored by Goodyear and Jiffy Auto Services. General admission will 20$ to get in.

For more information on what is happening at the speedway, please visit the website at www.cornwallspeedway.com